PROFILE

I turn paintings into products: a 600,000+ community, a game built on my own artwork, and the finance and maths to run the numbers.

EXPERIENCE

Reador.art · Founder 2024 – now

→ Built an art community from zero to 600,000+ followers
→ Run on daily content and my own ROI metrics
→ Launched my own digital products

Morgan Stanley Agentic Coding Class 2026 – now

→ Directing AI coding agents to build ArAt and Readors Exped, from design to launch
→ Bringing real artists on board, built to pitch to investors

Deep Creative Collective · Analytics & content intern 2023 – 2026

→ Analysed campaign and content performance and turned it into reports
→ Planned and edited short-form video
